VALUABLE PLANTATION FOR SALE!

ON THE SECOND THURSDAY IN DECEMBER, that being the 13th day of the month, I will sell to the highest bidder, upon the premises, that desirable lately owned, and resided upon, by Miss Elizabeth Hinton, dec'd.

COTTON PLANTATION,

The tract is situated on Neuse River, six miles East of Raleigh, on the Tarboro' Road, adjoining the lands of David Hinton. It contains of land,—from THREE TO FOUR HUNDRED of which are cleared. About 100 acres are fine low grounds, not liable to over-flow. This is considered one of the best Cotton Plantations in the County, and the bottom land will always produce enough Corn to sustain it.

THE IMPROVEMENTS

consist of a handsome Dwelling House, containing seven rooms, located on a commanding site. There are three frame houses also on the premises, with two rooms each, and all necessary out-houses, cabins, barns, gin house, carriage house, &c.

As this land will be sold on the liberal credit of only one-third cash, the balance payable in one, two and three years, a rare opportunity is afforded to parties wishing to purchase a first-class farm.

Personal security will be required, and title will be with-held until the last payment is made.

NOTE.—This Land will be divided into three tracts, the House-tract 600 acres, another tract of 350 acres, and another of 245, plots of which may be seen at my office above Creech's Store.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

MRS. S. D. HARRISON.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

I have tried Mr. Wm. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them very good. L. M. TUCKER.

Thursday Evening, Dec. 6, 1866.

The Howard Amendment.

The report of the Joint Committee of both Houses on the Howard amendment, was to-day presented in the Senate by Gen. J. M. Leach, the Chairman, and after some discussion, was ordered to be printed and made the order of the day for Thursday, the 13th inst. The Committee consisted of thirteen, men of moderation and honest purpose, all of whom signed the report except one. We learn that the report is moderate, respectful to the Congress, able and decided.

We regret that the action has been deferred so long. No subject has been more fully discussed in North Carolina, and none upon which the great body of our people have made up a more deliberate judgment, than this. They will simply exercise the right of private judgment in rejecting it,—a thing which the Congress admitted we had a right to do, when that body submitted it to the Legislatures of the States. The opinions and wishes of the Congress or of the Northern people cannot legitimately, and ought not, to weigh a feather, in determining the exercise of the free choice of our people.—If it was not intended to be a free choice, why submit it to us? The only question for the Legislatures of the Southern States, is this, is the amendment in itself right, just, necessary, and consonant with the great principles of free government as already embodied in the Constitution of the United States? If not, they are unworthy Legislators who would fasten upon their people an amendment to the Constitution which subverts it, and entails upon us a government which we have never sanctioned. If Congress is determined to punish the South for the past, it is obliged to do so under laws constitutionally adopted prior to the committing of the offence, or it must pass ex post facto laws, contrary to the positive declarartion of the Constitution. Heaven knows, the South has been punished already, to a limit beyond which humanity and justice cannot go. We shall lay the report before our readers at an early day.

We are ready to surrender any personal or political feeling to effect the great object of National tranquility and Union. Any proper amendment of the Constitution to secure that end and to give ample indemnity to the nation against the future, which our people can honorably approve, we would not object to. But we never can vote for the enlargement of the powers of the Federal Government, or the Congress and Executive, which look to the destruction of the old government as the Howard amendment proposes to do, or the humiliation and degradation of our own people. If they are to be disfranchised, let others do it.

North Carolina Representatives.

So far as we are informed, Mr. Pool is the only representative of this State now at Washington. We hear talk of self-constituted delegates or hobnobbers, but neither of our Senators or Representatives are there, except Mr. Pool.—Why should they be there? They have no hope of admission, and yet it is possible, one or more of them who can truly represent the State might be of advantage by going and remaining at least awhile. The expense, however, should not be borne by the representative.

We make the suggestion for the reason, that however violent and foregone the conclusions of some of the dominant party may be, there are others more thoughtful and considerate, and many whose course is very much influenced by incorrect and false information in regard to the South. A world of evil might have been avoided in the unfortunate conflict between the sections, if truth could have travelled as fast as falsehood. The South owes it to herself, if she perish, at least, as far as she can, to go down with truth and honor upon her lips, after having done what truth required to shield the innocent and helpless.

The Grand Lodge of North Carolina.

At the annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of this State, held in this city during the present week, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Hon. Edwin G. Reade, Roxboro, Grand Master.
Wm. Lander, Lincolnton, Senior Grand Warden.
Jno. Nichols, Raleigh, Jun. Grand Warden.
C. W. D. Hutchings, Raleigh, Grand Treasurer.
Wm. T. Bain, Raleigh, Grand Secretary.

The Grand Master made the following appoint:

R. W. Best, Raleigh, Dep. Grand Master.
Rev. P. G. Bowman, Morganton, Grand Chaplain.
W. W. Dunn, Kinston, Sen. Grand Deacon.
Henry L. Lee, Kinston, Junior Grand Deacon.
F. G. Foster, Raleigh, Grand Marshal.
M. Fetter, Chapel Hill, Grand Sword Bearer.
W. H. Smith, Roxboro, Grand Pursuivant.
J. M. Betts, Raleigh, Grand Tyler.

This convocation has been, perhaps, the largest ever assembled in this State. The Lodge was too small for the comfortable accommodation of the large number of visiting brethren.—We believe gentleman from almost every part of the State were in attendance, and we learn, the proceedings were of a highly entertaining and important charter. The annual address of Judge Reade, the Grand Master, we have heard spoken of in the highest terms. We hope that the Lodge took steps to commence, at an early day, the construction of a commodious and elegant building for its convocations. So important a body as the Masonic Fraternity of the State, ought to have a commanding edifice appropriated to its uses.

Comptroller Elected.

After a number of ineffectual attempts to elect a Comptroller, the Legislature succeeded to-day in electing Mr. Winslow Burgin, of Buncombe. He is said to be fully competent for the office.

NORTH CAROLINA LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

THURSDAY, Morning Dec. 6.

The Senate was called to order at 10½ o'clock A. M.

Prayer by the Rev. Dr. Mason, of the Episcopal Church.

The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

Mr. Cunningham, from the Committee on Propositions and Grievances, to whom was referred a bill to authorize the Justices of the County of Cumberland to fund the interest due on its bonds issued in payment of its stock in the Western Railroad, reported back the same with an amendment, recommending its passage.

Mr. Gash, from the Joint Select Committee, to whom was referred so much of the Governor's message as relates to a Penitentiary, reported by bill, in favor of the establishment of a Penitentiary, recommending its passage and asking to be discharged from its further consideration. On his motion, it was laid on the table and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Leach, from the Joint Select Committee, to whom was referred the duty of investigating the Constitutional Amendment, reported at some length, recommending the rejection of the Amendment. Only one member of the Committee dissented from the report, Mr. P. A. Wilson, of Forsythe County.

On motion of Mr. Harris, of Rutherford, it was ordered to be printed and made the special order for Thursday, the 13th inst., at 12 o'clock M.

A message was received from the House proposing to go forthwith into the election of Comptroller of the State, recommending Messrs. Winslow Burgin, of Buncombe, and W. H. Cowles, of Yadkin, and withdrawing the names of Messrs. Cowper and Holderby, which was concurred in, and Messrs. Richardson and Snead were appointed to superintend the election.

(Mr. Love arose and stated that he could not allow the use of his name in opposition to either of the above gentlemen named from the House. Spoke of Mr. Burgin in a complimentary manner, he having been a gallant soldier, having lost his leg, but was in every way competent to fill the office.)

Messrs. Leach and Moore spoke in very flattering terms of Mr. Cowles. Mr. Moore stated that he had served with him in the army and that he was a gallant soldier, had also received a wound, and that one of his arms was paralyzed, but he would make a capital officer.

The Senate proceeded to vote, which resulted as follows on joint ballott: Burgin 62, Brogden 60, Cowles 36. No election.

A message was received from the House transmitting the report of the Committee who superintended the election of Councillor of State, which resulted in the election of Wm. Eaton, Jr., of Warren. Also a message proposing to go forthwith into a second ballot for Comptroller of the State, which was concurred in, and the vote on joint ballot stood as follows: Burgin 62, Brogden 58, Cowles 40. No election.

Mr. Cunningham asked leave of absence until Tuesday next, for Mr. Perkins, the Senator from Pitt. Granted.

A message was received from the House proposing to go forthwith into a third ballot for Comptroller of the State. Concurred in, and the vote on joint ballot stood as follows: Burgin 70, Brogden 57, Cowles 31 and Collins 1. No election.

RESOLUTIONS AND BILLS.

Mr. Thornton, a resolution proposing to increase the committee on Public Buildings.—Laid over under the rules.

Mr. McLean, a bill to amend an act to incorporate the Bingham Coal Mining Company.—Referred to the committee on Corporations.

Mr. Koonce, a bill authorizing T. J. Whitaker, late Sheriff of Jones County, to collect arrears of taxes. Filed.

A message was received from the House proposing to go forthwith into a fourth ballot for Comptroller, the name of Mr. Cowles having been withdrawn. Concurred in, and the vote stood on joint ballot, Burgin 89, Brogden 67 and Cowles 1. Mr. Burgin was elected.

The bill to grant aid to the Cheraw and Coalfield Railroad Company came up and was debated at some length, in which Messrs. Hall, Wilson, Wiggins, Speed, Leach, Jones and Covington took part, which we are not prepared to report; pending its discussion Mr. Thornton moved to adjourn until to-morrow at 10½ o'clock. Adjourned.

[Mr. Kelley moved the adjournment on yesterday instead of Mr. Adams, as reported.—Reporter.]

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

THURSDAY, Dec. 6.

The House was called to order at 10½ o'clock, A. M.

Prayer by Rev. Mr. Hudson of the Methodist Church.

The journal of yesterday was read and approved.

Mr. Long presented memorials from citizens of Stanly and Union counties, asking relief. Referred to the Committee on Propositions and Grievances.

Mr. Garriss from the committee that superintended the election held on yesterday, for six councillors of State, reported the election of Wm. Eaton, Jr., of Warren. No other elections.

RESOLUTIONS AND BILLS.

Mr. Davis introduced a resolution in favor of Hon. A. S. Merrimon.

A message was received from the Senate, transmitting the following engrossed resolution; which passed its several readings under a suspension of the rules: Resolution authorizing the Governor to accept the aid proffered by the U. S. Government.

Resolved, That the Governor be instructed in order to ascertain the extent of the destitution in the several counties of the State, to open a correspondence, with the Chairman of the Warden Courts in their respective counties, and report the result of such inquiry to the Chief Assistant Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau in this State.

Resolved, further, That the Governor be authorized to do all other acts necessary to carry out the objects contemplated by the foregoing resolution, and that each county shall make provision to pay the expenses of transportation, and all other expenses upon such supplies as may be received for the benefit of the poor of such counties respectively.

Mr. Latham, of Craven, introduced a resolution that the committee on Military Affairs inquire as to the practicability and expediency of recovering and re-interring the remains of N. C. soldiers who fell in the late war. Adopted.

By Mr. Latham, of Washington, a bill to amend sec. 1st chap. 29 Acts of 1865-'66, in relation to roads, ferries and bridges. This bill passed its several readings under a suspension of the rules. It repeals the provision requiring persons over 45 years of age to work on the public roads.

By Mr. Bright, a bill to allow persons convicted of crimes and misdemeanors who are unable to pay the costs, to work the costs out on the public roads.

By Mr. Durham: a bill to amend sec. 1. chap. 7 Revised Code.

BILLS ON SECOND READING.

A bill providing Homesteads, was rejected, under an unfavorable report from the Judiciary Committee.

A bill for the relief of the people, was laid on the table under a like report.

A bill concerning working the public roads—[Exacting such work from males between the ages of 15 and 55] was amended so as to apply only to the county of Caswell, and was then rejected.

On motion of Mr. Lowe a message was sent to the Senate, proposing that the two Houses proceed to elect Comptroller.

Mr. Dargan withdrew the name of Mr. Holderby and nominated Winslow Burgin of Buncombe County.

Mr. Morehead nominated, Col. William Cowles of Yadkin County.

Mr. Whitfield withdrew the name of Col. Love.

Mr. Hutchison withdrew the name of Mr. Cowper.

The Senate by message announced its concurrence and the House proceeded to vote.

The joint vote on this ballot stood, Brogden 60, Burgin 62, Cowles 36. Whole vote 158. Necessary to choice 80. No election.

Mr. Russ presented a memorial from members of the colored Baptist Church of the city of Raleigh praying the grant of a portion of the public square kuown as the Baptist Grove, on which to erect a house of worship. Referred to the committee on Public Grounds and Buildings.

A second ballot was had for Comptroller resulting, as follows; Whole vote 155. Necessary to choice 78, Burgin 62, Brogden 53, Cowles 40. No election.

Mr. Hutchison (by leave) introduced a bill to empower the county court of Mecklenburg to hold extra terms.

A bill to enable the Western Railroad Company to complete its road from the Coalfields in Chatham County, to some point on the North Carolina Railroad, failed to pass its 3rd reading by a vote of 15 Yeas 58 nays.

The House then adjourned.

President's Message.

The following sound and just views, we take from the leader of the New York World, on the message:

"The President adheres to his former views with resolute, indomitable steadiness, but with the calmness of conscious strength. "Upon this question," he says, meaning the immediate admission of the Southern members, "so vitally affecting the restoration of the Union and the permanency of our present form of government, my convictions, heretofore expressed, have undergone no change; but, on the contrary, their correctness has been confirmed by reflection and time."

It is probable that the Republican members of Congress knew of the President's inflexibility when they held their infuriated caucus, on Saturday evening. But this is a point of no consequence. What is certain, and what the country is most concerned to know, is, that the President remains immovable, and Congress belligerent. The elections have not awed him into any degree of submissiveness, and he restates his position with a masculine, convincing clearness, which must produce a favorable impression upon all candid men. He does not deign to pay the Constitutional amendment even the cold compliment of a passing allusion; nor is there any reason why he should. It was, to be sure, the leading issue in the elections; but the binding effect of the election in any State does not extend beyond its own legislature, which is thereby instructed to ratify the amendment for that particular State. The legislatures that decline to ratify are just as much bound by the will of their constituents, as the ratifying legislatures are by theirs; the popular vote in each State binding its own legislature, and nobody else. Congress exhausted its whole authority in reference to the amendment when it passed it by a two-thirds vote. The President expended his whole authority, and discharged his whole duty, when he caused certified copies to be transmitted to the States. If, when the legislatures have all acted upon the amendment, the rejections are more than one-fourth of the whole number, the amendment will be just as dead as if it had failed to get a two-thirds vote in Congress. That this is to be the result no intelligent man doubts; and why should the President have occupied space with a measure which long since passed beyond the control of Congress, and is far on its way towards the limbo of lost or abortive things?

The only question connected with the restoration of the Union which has any remaining vitality, is the admission of the Southern members. The President refrains from discussing or suggesting any new conditions of admission, because he recognizes no authority on the part of Congress to impose any. The States are entitled to representation by the plain provisions of the Constitution; and so long as the Constitution remains unaltered, their claim is perfect and indefeasible. They can be excluded only by a flagrant violation of the Constitution.—The President, having built originally upon this solid foundation, has nothing to retract or modify; and there is no place for compromise when the proposal is to barter the Constitution on one side against party advantage on the other.

Thirty-two years ago, remarks the New York Tribune, when Douglas left his Green Mountain home for Illinois, his great rival, Lincoln, was keeping a postoffice, fresh from the glories of the Black Hawk war; Andrew Johnson was Mayor of a little mountain town in Tennessee; Jefferson Davis, a lieutenant of dragoons, was chasing the Indians; Seward was grieving over his defeat as Governor; Breckenridge was studying the orations of Cicero against Cataline at a Kentucky college; Chase was endeavoring to gain a law practice in Cincinnati; Sumner was entering a Boston bar; Broderick was cutting stone; Grant was a school boy in his teens, and Farragut was watching the honor of his country's flag on the torrid coast of Brazil.

The report of the Secretary of the Treasury will show a decrease of the national debt during past year, of $196,636,721.

The most astounding fish story yet told is the statement by Professor Agassiz, that in Brazil they have a species of fish that can climb trees.

THE SENTINEL.

Thursday Evening, Dec. 6, 1866.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

LECTURES.—Our community, it is clear, do not appreciate the Lecture system. On several occasions, recently our people have had excellent opportunities to enjoy this intellectual pleasure, but the audiences have not been worth the labor of preparing them. For charity, perhaps, a few dozen will go out to pay their money, but as to deriving benefit or pleasure from a lecture, that seems to be another part of speech.

LARGE RADISH.—A fine radish was handed to us to-day, by Major Bagley, grown in the garden of Gov. Worth. We have never seen it beaten. It weighed two pounds ten ounces and measured 16 inches in circumference.

SEVERE ACCIDENT.—We are pained to learn, that on yesterday, our friend and countrymen, Mr. M. Mc Stevenson, of this county, had the misfortune to have his hand caught in his cotton gin, crushing two of his middle fingers from his left hand, and severely mutilating his hand.—He suffered severely. His physicians were obliged to amputate the two fingers, and hope his hand and other fingers will be saved. The operation was performed by Dr. E. Burke Haywood, assisted by Dr. W. G. Hill and Doctor Banks.

"J. N."—We received a letter from the inevitable "J. N. the philosopher" from Washington city, last night, that he would be in this city on Saturday night next, and would address the people from the steps of the Court House.

PERSONAL.—Conscious integrity is unmoved by the attacks of falsehood and malice. We want no better vindication among honest and true men, than must result from an inquiry into what the Progress asserts and the Standard backs up or swears to. It would seem that the pair could hardly tell the truth if they were to be hung.

GOV. SWAIN'S LETTER.—The Newbern Journal of Commerce, in publishing the letter of Goy, Swain to Goy, Perry, very justly says:

"No document could be presented to the public at a more opportune moment, than the letter of ex-Gov. Swain, President of the University of North Carolina.

We ask for it a careful perusal, feeling sure that the truths presented by the distinguished writer will commend themselves to every unprejudiced mind. We do not recollect to have read any communication, upon the subject matter of President Swain's letter to Gov. Perry, more conclusive.'

MESSRS. EDITORS:—It has been decided that the Fair for the benefit of the Memorial Association shall take place on the 18th of the present month. Those ladies in the country who take an interest in the objects of the Association, and who wish to assist in furnishing the supper table, are requested to communicate with the Secretary of the Sewing Society, stating what articles they are willing to contribute.—Ladies who may wish to attend a meeting of the Society, will find the officers and other members at Mrs. Miller's residence, on Saturday mornings from 10½ to 12 o'clock, M.

"Send them Back."

Under this head we find the following extraordinary statement in the New York Observer, a religious journal:

Rev. Dr. Adger, of South Carolina, in a letter to Dr. Backus, of Baltimore, lately published, makes the following statement, and vouches for the fact:

"When Gen. Sherman's army passed through Winsboro', S. C., a Captain F—— and six others of that army robbed one of the ruling elders of Scion Presbyterian Church there of an elegant silver communion set, the gift of a dying female member of the same, costing in New York two hundred dollars, and having the church's name and the donor's name engraved upon each article."

Dr. Adger makes the following additional statement, which, for the honor of humanity, as well as Christianity, we would hope cannot be true:

"A certian congregation of your body now has that silver communion set, which Captain F—— presented to them, and are now using it for their communion purposes, with those names of Scion Church and its dying sister staring them in the face as they eat the bread and drink the wine, which set forth the body and blood of our common Master."

The idea that a Christian church can celebrate the holy ordinance of the Lord's Supper in the use of vessels thus obtained, is too monstrous to be entertained for a moment, unless they are held only until the church from which they were taken can be ascertained. This notice may assist the church in ascertaining it, and we are sure that if the sacred vessels should be sent to Dr. Adger, Columbia, S. C., he would see that they were restored to the church to which they belong.

We echo the sentiment that the idea that a Christian church can retain such articles, is monstrous. We should imagine that the communicants in the church, while using these vessels, would see the vision of their Master entering the temple with the scourge in his hand, and saying to them, "It has been written that my house shall be called a house of prayer, but ye have made it a den of thieves."

What can we expect for the future of our country if we do not reform this great wrong, which has cursed churches as well as families! An old friend of ours, a Union man in the South through all the war, told us that his chandeliers were in a certain house in Massachusetts, his piano in another and various family treasures in others. He had traced them to their positions. We have heard of a Southern lady sitting down at a Northern table and recognizing silver on that table as her own. We have heard a lady receiving from an officer a present of jewelry, which she recognized as the jewelry of a Southern lady who had been her own schoolmate and friend. Public sentiment needs to be aroused to this subject, and the holders of such goods should be compelled, by the indignation of their honest fellow citizens, to "send them back."

HON. JAMES GUTHRIE.—The Louisville Courier, referring to the statements about the health of this distinguished gentleman, says that he will not be able to take his seat at the opening of Congress.

Washington Letter.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 1, 1866.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Extracts from the Standard have, from time to time, appeared in the Radical journals. This morning one, whose hatred of the South and the Southern people, has been ever most violent, appeared with a diatribe against North Carolina which, it states, was taken from the Standard. The disappointed aspirant for office is, perhaps, to be pitied, but there is no language sufficient to express the loathing of honest men, for the man who seeks to avenge his defeat at the ballot-box, by involving the dire evils of military despotism on those for whose suffrage he has but just now pleaded on his knees, and whose every utterance is seized upon with delight by the enemies of his State and country. Let the candidate for San Salvadorean honors beware. Should his prayers be granted, unlike Judas Iscariot, he will not receive his thirty pieces of silver. His record is too tainted with the heresy of secession, and another San Salvador awaits him.

The projected railway from Baltimore, direct to Aquia Creek, is in process of construction, and is expected to be in full running order by the 1st Jan. 1867. This road will add considerably to the prosperity of the Monumental city—a city destined to become, in a very short period, the greatest commercial centre, except one, on the Atlantic seaboard. There is to be a junction at Collington, 14 miles from Washington, whence a branch will run to this city.—The distance from Washington to Baltimore by this connection is four miles shorter than by the present Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and the construction of the near line is a matter of great rejoicing among the enemies of that hated and formidable monopoly.

A recent census of Illinois shows the increase of population in that State, in the last five years, to be in the neighborhood of 500,000. These figures may suggest food for thought for those of our statesmen with whom office is not a synonym for patriotism, and may, perhaps, warrant the notion that the agitation of the means by which the labor and capital of the State shall be increased, is of more importance to North Carolina than the agitation of any of the political issues of the day whatever.

There seems to be little doubt of the collapse of the Mexican Empire. Like the rebellion (so-called) its closing scene has been so often and so graphically described by the correspondents of the Herald, and other well known papers, that it seems difficult to realize the fact.—The ex-Emperor is said to be expected in France by the first steamer.

The annexation meetings, said to be taking place in Canada, are exciting some little attention. If the reports are true it is to be doubted if the result will amount to much.

A visit to the cemeteries around Washington will give some idea of the immense slaughter in the Federal armies during the war. In addition to the thousands buried here and removed here from other places, the government has caused the bones of the Federal dead, on the different battle-fields to be collected and brought here. In one catacomb are placed, it is said, the bones of twenty thousand soldiers which have been bleaching on the battle-fields of the South. No expense has been spared by the government to render every imaginable honor to the remains of its soldiers and to decorate their final resting place. The heart turns sadly away from all this to the dead who died for Southern independence—they who have no government and no remembrance save in the tears of the lovely daughters of the South. But they need no sculptured tomb, no shafted cenotaph.

"On Fame's eternal camping ground,
Their silent tents are spread,
And glory stalks with solemn round,
To guard the bivouac of the dead'." L.

LOUISBURG, N. C., Dec. 1, 1866.

Hon. Mason L. Wiggins, State Senate, Raleigh, N. C.

MY DEAR SIR:—I address you because you are an old and influential member. I notice that several bills have been introduced in the Legislature for the relief of debtors, and fearing the sympathy of your honorable body may be entirely absorbed by that class, I think it only justice to beg a little commiseration for unfortunate creditors. In doing so, I hope you will pardon me when I refer to my own case, for the purpose of illustration. During many years before the war I was engaged in the business of merchandise, in our little village. I sold the people iron, sugar, salt, shoes and all other goods usually sold in a first class village store. My means are dispersed through the community, and I have but little else to look to for the maintenance of an invalid wife and several small children. Many owe me notes and accounts of several years standing, some cannot pay anything, others can pay a portion, and others can pay all if they would. Yes, sir, while you are entering the plea of oppression in behalf of the debtor, many of them are speculating on capital wrongfully withheld from their creditors. Under an entire suspension of our State laws for the collection of debts, can you tell me what will become of my class when suits are instituted against us, in the Federal courts? Large sums are now due the Northern creditor by our merchants. I beg you, sir, to give a little of your protection to the swarms of orphan children who have no means of support except their creditors. Do you know the continued agitation of this question of "relief" is giving birth to and fostering the hope, with many, that something will eventually be done to cancel all obligations? Do you know it is an incentive to extravagance and demoralizing to the community? May it not lead to a change of the jurisdiction and pleadings in the Federal courts, for the protection of outside creditors? If the eminent talent of the Legislature and public press could give their influence to the cause of economy and industry, there would not be much need of so much unconstitutional legislation "impairing the obligation of contracts." Our people strive too hard to keep up the old status in style.

Yes sir, extravagance stalks over the land!—Only think of the Balls and Tournaments! Four hundred and fifty dollars (or about that sum) was paid for music alone, for the entertainment of the people at the Tournament here last week.

I am not in favor of oppression. Take care you do not in your great anxiety to protect one class, oppress another. Little or no protection is given the creditor under the existing law.—He is a poor manager or a bankrupt who cannot pay his debts in small instalments. B.

[We publish the above letter by request, in order that all may see what can be said on both sides. But it must be understood, that the creditor is already protected, both by the law and the Constitution, the great secret for the Legislature to discover is, how the debtor can be protected against total ruin, and yet give the creditor his due.—EDS. SENTINEL.]

Our Thursday Morning Dispatches.

Republican Caucus.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.

The caucus of the Republican members of the House, held at the Capitol this evening, was very large, nearly one hundred members being present. The following measures, reported from the Select Committee, were agreed upon:

First, to pass a bill regulating the organization of the House, directing the Clerk to place no names on the roll from States not represented in the preceding Congress or declared entitled to representation, and providing that no electoral votes shall be counted from any State not represented at the time in Congress.

Second, to pass a bill remedying the defect in the law, which may prevent any State canvassing the votes for Electors of President and Vice President.

Third, to pass a law changing the time of the meeting of Congress, with a view to assembling on the fourth of March.

Fourth, to raise a special Committee for the rigid investigation of the New Orleans riot, the number of lives destroyed, the property burned, and to what extent Government officials were included therein. The Committee to have power to send for persons and papers, to be accompanied by the Sergeant-at-Arms, and to report appropriate legislation.

Fifth, to order a Select Committee to investigate the proceedings under the laws for the collection of direct taxes in rebel States, and the securing and sale of abandoned and confiscated lands and other property.

Sixth, the Committee on Pensions to inquire whether any pensioners in the disloyal States struck from the pension rolls, have been restored in violation of law.

Seventh, a special committee to investigate the facts connected with the release of the murderers of Union soldiers in S. C., recently set at liberty by the Delaware Judge. A resolution passed unanimously that the members of the caucus bind themselves to sustain the propositions as party measures. Mr. Ashley, of Ohio, said he noticed, present, a gentleman who had drawn the address of the Philadelphia Convention, and asked if he was a member of the Union party, and had a right there. The Chairman, Mr. Morrill, of Vermont, replied, amid laughter, "While the lamp holds out to burn, the vilest sinner may return." Raymond, on being asked whether he did not participate in the Philadelphia Convention, replied, he had, but not in any spirit of hostility to the Union party; that he entered the Convention to strengthen that party, thinking it should be more conservative than it was, but when he found it likely to lead to the defeat of the Union party, he abandoned it, and had ever since done his best to maintain and support the Union party. He also said he approved of the measures reported here this evening. Mr. Scofield moved that the gentleman be allowed to remain in caucus or not at his option, and judge for himself whether he was a member of the Union party or not. Mr. Lawrence, of Ohio, asked Mr. Raymond whether he adhered to the doctrine of the Philadelphia address, particularly to the clause that the rebel States could not ratify the constitutional amendment without dishonor. Mr. Raymond was understood to deny there was such a clause in it, said he adhered to that address according to his own construction of it, but not according to the construction sometimes put on it by others.—Mr. Stevens could not see how Mr. Raymond could pretend connection with the Union party after membership in the Philiadelphia Convention, and his authorship of the address put forth by that body. Messrs. Darling and Hall, of New York, and Mr. Garfield, of Ohio, favored Mr. Raymond's remaining in caucus, and Mr. Morris, of Ohio, and Mr. Cook were against it. Mr. Raymond made further explanations with regard to the Philiadelphia address, when the caucus adopted Mr. Scofield's resolution.

HOUSE.—Mr. Williams read a lengthy written argument on the bill regulating appointments to and removals from office. He was very severe upon the President, whom he said had betrayed his party and country.

Several amendments were offered to the bill, which is made the special order for to-day.

A bill to protect the rights of action of loyal citizens was passed. [It provides that where a citizen who has always been loyal shall bring actions to recover damages, it shall not be defeated or any defence allowed by virtue of the authority of the late Confederate States.

Battle on the Rio Grande.

GALVESTON, TEXAS, Dec. 4.

The following Mexican advices have been received:

On the 29th ult. a pontoon bridge was thrown from Brownsville across to Matamoras, over which a detachment of United States forces under Col. J. G. Perkins, crossed and took command of Matamoras. It was alleged that Canales' forces were to sack the city, and that Gen. Sedgwick sent troops to protect the lives and property of the American citizens. Sedgwick escorted Canales out for an interview with Escabado, and no terms were agreed on. Sedgwick and Canales then went back to the city.—At half past five next morning, Escabado opened on the city. M. C. Canales, brother of the General was killed.

A later dispatch received from a private source says Canales and Escabado have met as friends, and that the latter was not in command of Fort Matamoras. His forces charged Montery, and was repulsed and pursued, by Canales. Escabado lost 450 killed and wounded, and 300 prisoners. Canales lost, 25 killed.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhoea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The Louisville Journal says: "The testimonials which Dr. Gardner presents to the public could never have been obtained, except by the display of great skill and learning in his profession. One thing especially commendable in the Doctor's practice is, that he will not attempt an incurable disease for the sake of a fee, but frankly tells the patient whether he can be cured or not. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from diseases of the eye or ear.

The Richmond Times says: "We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Gardner is the most scientific and successful eye and ear Surgeon in this country.

"We feel justified in recommending Doctor Gardner to those suffering from diseases of the eye and ear."—Richmond Whig.

The Wheeling Register says: "Dr. Gardner is one of the most successful Oculists and Aurists in the country. We advise those suffering from the diseases of the eye and ear to consult him."

SOMETHING NEW

A New Era In Medicine

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

L. S.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
27 Pitt Street.

New York, April 7, 1865.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

By this practical illustration of the advantages of Life Insurance, it is commended to the confidence and support of every one desirous of providing for surviving loved ones.

As an investment merely, a Life Insurance Policy is as safe an investment of funds as can be made.—The principal, generally, is not only many times in excess of the amount paid, but in a sound company it has no rival for security, and no species of Government bonds are a more desirable investment.
